

Uma, TPR.

UGAM PILLAI SEETHAI AMMAL COLLEGE

TIRUPPATTUR - 630 211.

Sivagangai District

(Affiliated to Alagappa University)

CALENDAR
2017 - 2018

The Motto of NSS

The Motto of the National Service scheme is "Not Me but you" This expresses the essence of democratic living and upholds the need to appreciate the other man's points of view first and to show consideration for fellow human beings. It also underlines the welfare of the society as a whole. Therefore the aim of the NSS is to demonstrate this motto in its day-to-day Programme.

Specific Objectives

The more specific objectives of the National Service Scheme are to arouse the student's social conscience and to provide him with the opportunity.

1. To work with and among people.
2. To engage in creative and constructive social action.
3. To enhance his knowledge of himself and the community through confrontation with reality.
4. To put his scholarship to practical use in mitigating at least some of social problems.
5. To gain skills in the exercise of democratic leadership.
6. To gain skills in programme development to enable him to get self-employed

The NSS Volunteers should satisfy the following conditions for obtaining various certificates issued by and through the NSS Organisation.

1. The hand book should be preserved throughout the course. certificates will not be issued without the surrender of this book to the NSS Officer on completion of their service.
2. To claim NSS general certificate, a volunteer should complete a minimum of 120 hours of work per year.
3. Volunteers should get their Service Record books signed by the authorised student leader immediately on completion of the work at the spot. They should also get attested at least once in a week by the NSS P.O.
4. Volunteers are expected strictly to adhere the Codes of Conduct given for various projects in the N.S.S. Hand book.

5. Leadership and merit certificate will be issued to those earning reputation for their perseverance. Initiative, imagination and personality dynamism and above all character and integrity.
6. Volunteers attending week - end and annual camps will get special certificates from the college.

Code of Conduct for NSS Volunteers

1. All volunteers should work under the guidance of an authorised leader.
2. They should make themselves worthy of the confidence and co-operation of leaders.
3. Some practice comes before precept. Volunteers should inspire confidence in local people and win their co-operation by themselves setting an example and thus smoothen the way for discussions and local acceptance of suggestion for the success of any NSS Programme.
4. Volunteers should scrupulously avoid entering into any discussion of a controversial nature with the local people particularly on caste, community, religion and politics.
5. They should keep a daily record of their activities in the form of a diary.
6. Simple, unostentatious dress is the sine qua non of volunteers life.
7. The other two essential conditions are unstinted co-operation and strict maintenance of team spirit.
8. It is obligatory on the part of every volunteer to wear the NSS badge while on duty.

National Cadet Corps

N.C.C. Organisation was created in 1948 by an act of parliament to channelise the youth in constructive work and to mould their character at the most impressionable age

Aims of N.C.C.

- a) Development of leadership, character, commandership, spirit of sportsmanship and ideal of service.

GENERAL

By accepting membership of the College, students accept an obligation to obey its rules and to respect and support its discipline. In the interpretation of the rules and in any academic or disciplinary matter not covered by the rules they are expected to accept the guidance of the college authorities.

1. Every student shall wear presentable and acceptable dress deeming such action as a matter of honourable obligation on his part to the College community to which he belongs and considering all slovenliness as an offence against self respect.
2. Good manners require that every student shall greet the teachers of the college when he/she meets for the first time during the day.
3. On a teacher entering the class room or leaving it the students shall rise and remain standing until desired to sit or till the teacher takes his seat or until the teacher has left the room.
4. Students shall not make any noise while moving from class to class.
5. Students are required to spend the leisure hours in the reading room of the library. They shall not loiter on the verandahs or the college campus or disturb class at work or sit on the parapet walls or the steps.
6. Every student shall attend class with regularity and shall refrain from anything calculated to impede attendance of other students.
7. Every student shall endeavor to conduct himself in the class room, halls and elsewhere in such a manner so as to offer the utmost possible assistance and cause the least possible disturbance to the work of the classes and of his fellow students.
8. Students shall keep standing and remain silent at 9.55 a.m. when the prayer bell rings.
9. After the ringing of the bell at the end of each hour five minutes will be allowed at the end of which time all students shall be seated in their own seats for next hours.
10. Attendance will be taken every hour. A Student who is not in the class, when attendance is taken shall be marked absent.

11. No student shall come late to the class. If owing to unexpected but unavoidable reason, a student comes late, he shall be admitted into the class and be marked present only after the production of an admit Card, from the Principal.
12. No student shall leave the classroom without the permission of the teacher before the class is dismissed.
13. Every Student shall handle college property with care and do everything in his power to preserve the cleanliness and tidiness of building and furniture and his seat. Any damage done to the properties of the college will be repaired at the cost of the student or students causing the damage. Any wilful damage is a serious offence.
14. No Student shall smoke within the college building or the College premises or in the playground.
15. Students are expected to read notices displayed on the College notice boards or in the Departments.
16. Students are expected to read notices displayed on the College Notice Board. Ignorance of any notices will not be accepted as the excuse for failing to comply with it.
17. No notice of any kind shall be circulated among the Students or displayed on the notice board without the permission of the principal.
18. Students shall take an active part in the extra curricular activities of the College. Students attending meeting shall conduct themselves with decency, decorum, dignity and discipline.
19. Study and discussion of public questions are permitted and encouraged but no student shall take part in any activity or any public movement which the College authorities consider as undesirable.
20. Under the Educational Rules of the Government the Principal has full power to impose the following punishment: fine, cancellation of attendance, withholding of term certificates, suspension and expulsion from college.
21. In general the students are expected to conduct themselves in and outside the college in a manner inconsonance with the virtues and dignity of young men preparing themselves to take their rightful place in civic life.
22. Ragging is strictly prohibited.