STAKEHOLDERS FEEDBACK
TEACHERS' FEEDBACK-2022-2023
REPORT

As an essential component of the education system, Arumugam Pillai Seethai Ammal College incorporates teachers' feedback in the improvement of the Curriculum and Syllabus. Once a year IQAC takes feedback from the stakeholders. IQAC prepared a questionnaire and received feedback on the curriculum from all the teachers for the year 2022-2023. Feedback focused on the points that the syllabus was on board with the current scenario and usage of ICT tools in curriculum delivery. 84% was marked positively 14% was neutral and 6% disagreed. Since the education system has to choose hybrid teaching methods, the ICT Tools usage was concentrated. 84% of faculty agreed ICT can be useful in curriculum delivery, but still, 2% felt it was difficult. 14% stood neutral. 83 % of teachers agreed that the course was useful for professionals. 16 % were neutral. 1% denied this point and suggested an improvement. 77 % of the teachers accepted that the curriculum was still skill-oriented and 21% neutral. Only 2%% expected an improvement. 73% of teachers agreed that the curriculum helps in competitive examinations and 20% were neutral. 7% of the faculty disagreed with the point. 79 % of faculty members say that the curriculum is flexible. 16% were neutral. 5% denied this. Faculty members have suggested that the curriculum should be updated and career-oriented. More than 90% registered positively. The documentation of the feedback has been sent to the Governing Body to analyze and lead to quality improvement.

ACTION TAKEN REPORT

2022-2023

Date: 02.11.2023

The Stakeholder's feedback report has been placed in the academic council meeting. As a continuous process of stakeholders' feedback, the Report of feedback has been prepared and taken to the Academic Council Meeting of the Institution. The stakeholders' involvement in the institution makes it more social and responsible. It is traditionally seen as the institution's responsibility in action. First, Feedback from alumni weaves a smooth relationship and plays an extension of career options. Second, Teachers' feedback really makes them look back. The darker and lighter side of curriculum delivery can be identified. Finally, Feedback from students' pictures the blueprint of the teaching-learning process and progress.

In the meeting, the stakeholders' feedback recommendations, results, refining standards and approaches were discussed. They pinned a positive note in most of the questions but the meeting concentrated on not letting down the strength and mainly stapling the improvement of the weaker side. IQAC coordinator explained the feedback result. Meeting's first discussion was on the essential part of curriculum delivery and update. Secondly, the feedback brought the idea that the learning and teaching process and mode with its effect Curriculum implementation or delivery. A few new important components of the curriculum were opened up in the meeting. Besides, the suggested and expected areas were identified in a chart. Some solid educational programs and courses like enrichment courses are suggested to provide for the students to motivate them to succeed and be challenged. Enhancement of curriculum delivery was in the claw of the meeting. Competitive exams and skill-based teachings were discussed which drive the students to upgrade themselves. IQAC conveyed satisfaction and dissatisfaction with materials and methods. Overall learning experience and facilities were discussed. The needed updating and goals were fixed and planned. The aim of the evaluation process has been analyzed through feedback. The council has suggested some ideas for the betterment. Finally, the whole process of feedback was taken for sound education to make students ready for their due place in society.

Based upon the consolidated feedback from Students, Teachers, and alumni, the following initiatives were implemented

- As a part of skill enrichment, add-on courses were introduced inculcating procedural methodology in the syllabus. In this regard, all the departments floated add-on courses
- A few departments initiated field trips to cultivate experiential learning for the students.
- Teachers were instructed to motivate students to enroll in MOOC courses.
- Faculty members were asked to assist and encourage students to use the upskilling platform, a massive industry-relevant skill enhancement initiative for the Youth of Tamil Nadu.
- Planned to initiate skill-oriented courses.
