DETAIL PROGRAMME REPORT

In the pandemic situation, students were exposed to digital screens for their academic and other activity. There was lot of time for the students in their home to use the electronic gadgets particularly smart phone. Students may be vulnerable to certain eye infections such as corneal abrasions, cornea tear, mask induced dry eye, blurred vision, persistent eye rubbing etc., In particular, prolonged exposure of digital devices can cause computer eye syndrome or digital eye strain to the students. In this connection, we planned to organize eye camp to our students and also to disseminate an awareness regarding eye infections caused due to prolonged usage of electronic devices.

Youth Red Cross of our college and Vasana Eye Care, Managiri, Karaikudi jointly organized one day eye camp in our college on 19.02.2021. Thiru N. Arumugarajan, Secretary of our college inaugurated the camp and Dr. (Capt). KR. Jeyakumar presided and gave felicitation address. Mr. R. Vetrivelan, Kariakudi Branch Manager, Vasana Eye Care and Pitchaikani, Public Relation Officer participated in the programme. Youth Red Cross Convener Mr. N.Sekar and members Dr. M. Ilayaraja, Assistant Professor of Chemistry, Dr. M. Lakshimekala, Assistant Professor of Economics, Dr. B. Marisamy, Assistant Professor of Commerce and Dr. M. SatheeshPandian, Assistant Professor of Economics organized the eye camp. 616 first year students actively participated in the programme. AR Vision test and Vision Chart test were checked for all the students by a team of ophthalmologist. Among the 616 students, 108 student's eyes were found to be defective. Students were advised by the team of ophthalmologist and optometrist regarding the preventive measures for eye protection. For defective students, doctors insisted them to have a thorough check up and go for treatment as early as possible in order to prevent the infection spread. Finally, Dr. M. Ilayaraja, Assistant Professor of Chemistry proposed Vote of Thanks and finally the programme ended with national anthem.
